PEACE TREATY WILL NOT PASS UNTIL CHANGED

Information Gained by Gov. Campbell in Washington Says It Must Be Changed Or Never Be Approved

Though the people throughout the country are thinking more about the high cost of living than anything else, said Governor Campbell yesterday, the peace treaty in congress is the world peace treaty and the league of nations though congressmen are aware that the people only want something done with the treaty they do not care what, just so that it is taken out of the way of other more important legislation.

So far as congress is concerned, said the governor, the treaty has been reduced to a partisan basis. There are five republican senators who will vote for the ratification of the treaty without amendments or reservations. There are probably not more than two democratic senators who are opposed to the League of Nations, though there are several who would rather support it with amendments but they will stand by the administration.

Last Friday, representatives of Egypt, Armenia and India were before the committee on foreign relations objecting to phases of the treaty affecting their respective countries. On Saturday a large Irish delegation appeared before the committee. There were present P. W. Walker, former Governor Dunne and Mr. Ryan of the Irish commission which went to Europe during the sitting of the peace conference. Another member of the delegation, the senate committee was Bourke Croghan.

They are demanding the exclusion of Article X of the covenant of the League of Nations and they declare that unless it is rejected it will bring the almost solid Irish-American vote against the democratic party next year. Nearly all the members of the delegation are democrats. They were further embittered by the absence from the hearing of the democratic members of it except two, while all the republican members were present.

The Irish representatives were at dinner at the same time that the governor and Senator Ashurst were sitting at another table. Seeing them a member of the delegation, a senator, governor and senator to join them. All of them began "ragging" the senator on his unsolicited support of the covenant. "You are more than half Irish, too," said one of the "raggers," "half of you is Irish," referring to Mrs. Ashurst.

One member of the delegation was Robert Emmett O'Malley of Kansas City, an influential democratic politician. Said he to Mr. Ashurst: "There are 35,000,000 Irish voters in this country and a very large majority of them are naturally democrats and have been since the democratic ticket. I can safely tell you that 25 per cent of the Irishmen of America will vote against the democratic ticket if the treaty is ratified as it now stands."

What would happen to the treaty was told Governor Campbell by one of the leading republican senators. One who has not been charged with opposition to the League of Nations or the treaty but who is on the inside. The governor did not feel at liberty to disclose his name for publication, but he said the senator might be regarded as accurate.

This senator said that the more violent amendments that the majority of the committee on foreign relations has been bringing in will be rejected by the senate by narrow margins. The republicans will not stand and their only object in introducing them is to put certain democratic members on record for the information of their constituents. After these amendments are rejected, reservations have been drafted, others of a milder character will be proposed but they may or may not be accepted. That will depend upon the pertinacity of the president. As to the amendment for the rejection of the League of Nations, there has never been a hope that it would be accepted by the senate.

But, said this senator, there are 40 senators pledged to the rejection of the peace treaty. That is eight more than are necessary to defeat it, and these senators will not be swayed by any influence. That said the senator is the precise situation: unless the treaty is materially amended, the United States will not participate in its ratification.

Contrary to the report recently sent out from Washington that the opposition senators would send trailers after the treaty, Wilson, Governor Campbell said that that such a step has been considered but had been rejected as unnecessary. Such arguments as the senator made might make no better an impression on the senate, he asserted, if desirable from Washington.

It was quite likely, said this senator, that Senator Johnson would visit California during the stay of the president there or soon after and that probably Senator Reed would make speeches in different parts of the country against the League of Nations. But that would be outside of any opposition program.

MONAGHAN RETURNS—R. M. Monaghan, manager of the Jefferson hotel, returned overland from the coast Tuesday accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John McRuer, who were married here two weeks ago and have been on their honeymoon to Long Beach. Mrs. McRuer will be remembered as Miss Luella Davis, formerly with the Jefferson hotel and more recently employed by Dr. Morris' office. Mr. McRuer is a mining man who has also returned to Phoenix.

RETURNS FROM COAST—Miss Katherine Blendinger, a deputy in the office of the clerk of the superior court, returned yesterday from a month's vacation on the coast. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. E. E. Blendinger who has also returned to Phoenix.

PEOPLE ASKED TO OBSERVE ONE DAY IN HONOR OF LAFAYETTE

In commemoration of the work done by the Marquis de La Fayette, French patriot, during the American revolution, September 6, is to be observed this year as La Fayette Day. It is not contemplated that any set program will be followed in Phoenix in observance of the day.

Acting Governor Mit Sims, has caused to be issued the following proclamation calling upon the people of the state to observe the day:

"One of the factors in the freedom we now as a nation and a people enjoy, was the aid given us by Marquis de La Fayette, who with great heroism and at great personal sacrifice aided us in our struggle for independence. That debt we but lately have endeavored in part to pay with blood and treasure, on the shell-torn fields of France, thus testifying our undying gratitude, and announcing to the world that the spirit of democracy, of which La Fayette was the embodiment, shall not be crushed by the iron heel of autocracy."

"As General Pershing rendered homage at the tomb of this statesman, warrior, and lover of free peoples and institutions, it is but meet and proper that we, as a nation, likewise bow our heads in reverence and in a spirit of gratitude recognize our obligation."

"The sixth day of September marks the 162nd anniversary of the birth of this truly great man and also the fifth anniversary of the Battle of the Marne. In view of the invisible ties which so closely bind France and America in a spiritual union, it is most appropriate that this occasion should be properly observed."

"Now, therefore, I, Mit Sims, acting governor of the State of Arizona, by virtue of the authority in me vested by law, do hereby set aside and proclaim the 6th day of September as La Fayette day, and urge the people of Arizona to celebrate this day by suitable exercises in the schools, churches and public places of the various communities."

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Arizona to be affixed."

WOUNDED MAN ASKS PRELIMINARY TRIAL

Despite the fact that L. C. Bunch alias R. L. Birch is alleged to have confessed to deputies of the sheriff's office that he stole horses belonging to E. A. Stary, when arraigned before Justice De Souza yesterday, Bunch asked that he be given a preliminary hearing. The court set the examination at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at the house of the defendant at $1,000 which the defendant failed to furnish.

When Bunch was arrested at Fisa Creek, the horses were not in his possession but were later recovered. He told the officers that he had hidden the saddles and led them to the canyon in Mormon Flat where he declared he had placed them.

He also insisted that he had been shot by a highwayman but later said the wound in his left side had been accidentally self-inflicted.

COUPLE KNOWN HERE MARRIED ON COAST

In the presence of only the immediate relatives of the young couple, Miss Esther Miles of Long Beach, California, and John A. Clifton of Hayden, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents in the California city August 30.

Both young people are well known in Phoenix. For the past year, the bride has been employed at the Dorris-Hayman Furniture company. Mr. Clifton is in the employ of the Ray Consolidated Copper company at Hayden. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Stewart. The young couple will make their home at Hayden.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK AND BEAUTIFUL

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.
